(a) Title of rule: (Describe Subject) As a result of an Executive Order 97-02 rule review, the department is proposing to repeal the following sections that regulate processed animal waste in Ct. 2-20800 Definitions; WAC 16-200-930 Labeling requirements of 16-200-940 Revising or canceling registration-Procedure; WAC 16-200-940 Quality standards; WAC 16-200-930 Labeling requirements of animal waste products; WAC 16-200-940 Testing required; and WAC 16-200-950 Records required. These openions will be replaced with a new, clearly written rule chapter (chapter 16-256 WAC Commercial Feed Rules: Processed Animal Waste) that specifically addresses processed animal waste industry requirements.  Purpose: The purpose of the proposed new chapter 16-256 WAC is to create a set of regulations that are easy to understand and use, reflect current national standards, safeguard the health of man and animals, establish a structure for orderly commerce, and provide protection for consumers and the regulated industry. Specifically, chapter 16-256 WAC:  • Addresses the specific needs of the Washington state processed animal waste industry.  • Is written in a clear and readable style that allows users to more easily understand and apply WSDA processed animal waste rules.  • Uses tables to clearly and succincity present information wherever possible and appropriate.  • By incorporating applicable parts of the Association of American Feed Control Officials (AAFCO) model regulations, helps increase the flow of trade and information and promotes regulatory consistency between Washington's processed animal waste industry and the processed animal waste industry in our sister states.  • Safeguards public health and the health of animals and provides increased protection for consumers and the regulated industry.  • Updates the department's processed animal waste regulatory consistency between Washington's processed animal waste industry and the processed animal waste industry and the processed animal waste industry in our sister states.  •	(a) Title of rule: (Describe Subject) As a result of an Executive Order 97-02 rule review, the department is proposing to repeal the following sections that regulate processed animal waste: WAC 16-200-910 Relusing or cancelling registration-Procedure; WAC 16-200-920 Quality standards; WAC 16-200-930 Labeling requirements of animal waste products; WAC 16-200-940 Testing required; and WAC 16-200-950 Records required.
